Elegant Evening at Biltmore Estates

I'm turning back the clock on this setting -- perhaps to the time of Biltmore's social glory. With this in mind, I will feature one or more vintage attired figures that will accomplish two things. Firstly, these figures provide historical accents -- a sense of dating this image to an early day. Secondly, the figures will identify the enormous scale of the property. My hope is to emphasize the grandeur of the Biltmore House while at the same time portraying its warmth as a home.

Mountain Paradise

The light of sunset pours from the sky, painting the clouds and nearby hills with a heavenly radiance. My Mountain Paradise is truly my daydream of an idyllic mountain hideaway.

Evening on the Avenue

Evening on the Avenue is a nostalgic look back to a time when families strolled America's Main Streets to mix and meet and conduct business.

Gatlinburg Sketch

Thom is creating a studio master work that will feature light infused buildings along the Parkway. Downtown Gatlinburg will be showcased against a backdrop of a late evening sunset. In the painting, visitors to Gatlinburg will be enjoying a day of shopping and the sights and sounds of a street fair-like atmosphere. Thom unveiled this detailed sketch of the new release on October 6th.
